Dizzy AKA Raw D.I. has already proven himself as an establish rapper among the streets of New Orleans. The 24-year-old works overtime as a member of Young Money Entertainment, which includes platinum artist Lil Wayne, while simultaneously pursuing a solo career. Having gained the support of his fellow New Orleanians, Dizzy is setting his sights on other cities.

Dizzy recently opened up shows for Jim Jones, Juvenile and Rich Boy. He has performed frequently with Young Money Entertainment on such tours as the Nellyville tour in 2003, The Georgia Power Tower featuring Young Jeezy, T.I., and Lil Wayne in 2005 and the Young Money Entertainment tour in 2006. When Dizzy isn't touring across the country you can find him performing in his hometown. Dizzy is a reoccurring performer at the New Orleans House of Blues, The Venue, Ceaser's, Club Dreams, and other clubs located in Baton Rouge, Houma, and Hammond Louisiana.

Dizzy is affiliated with Lil Wayne's Young Money Entertainment and P.C.O. (Paper Chasin' Organization), a label that he is a co-owner of. He was the first in New Orleans to turn mixtapes into albums. He has since released five mixtapes/albums, 1000 Miles to Downtown, Best of Dizzy AKA Raw D.I., Unload, Reloaded, The Raw, and is currently working on his sixth album, From the Ground Up. Dizzy possesses a mature street sound and his new album features hip hop influences with contemporary style that keeps it relevant and diverse. Look for its release expected this summer.
